Pastor of English Youth Ministry

New Life Evangelical Free Church is a vibrant, bilingual (English and Mandarin), multigenerational community of approximately 120 members. Founded in 1995, we are the first Mandarin-speaking church in Calgary and the first Mandarin congregation within the Evangelical Free church in Canada. We are prayerfully seeking a passionate follower of Jesus to lead our growing English-speaking youth ministry and raise up the next generation of disciples.

We are seeking a full-time English Youth Pastor who can develop and implement a long-term ministry vision for our English-speaking youth, with the goal of nurturing the next generation of Christ-followers.

Reporting to the Senior Pastor and accountable to the Deacon Board, the Pastor of English Youth Ministry will provide leadership to the English ministry congregation and help advance the vision and mission of the church.

Responsibilities:

- Provide spiritual leadership through biblical preaching and teaching that helps youth grow in their understanding of God's Word.
- Develop, lead, and oversee weekly youth programs, modeling and promoting a Christ-centered lifestyle and deeper commitment to Christ's mission.
- Equip, mentor, and empower young leaders, while identifying and cultivating emerging leadership within the ministry.
- Partner with parents to support and engage them in the spiritual development of their children.
- Offer individual counselling, pastoral care, and spiritual guidance to youth as they navigate personal and faith-related challenges.
- Supervise, support, and coordinate youth leaders and helpers to ensure the effective operation of all youth programs.
- Participate actively in staff meetings, one-on-one meetings with the Senior Pastor, Deacon Board meetings, and other necessary gatherings. Attendance at regular and special church services is also expected.
- Fulfill additional responsibilities as assigned by the Senior Pastor.
